WHAT DOCTORS SAY

About Pe-ru-na For the Ills of Women.

Pe-ru-na is a favorite with doctors for the treatment of all cases of pelvic catarrh, known as female disease. The following are samples of letters from doctors touching these cases:

W. T. McLeod, M. D., 1418 East Seventeenth street, Kansas City, Mo., writes: "I have used all of your remedies and find them very reliable. Pe-ru-na is invaluable in all cases of menopause, or change of life. I have used it in hundreds of cases and it has never failed me. Men-a-lin is the great rectifier of indigestion and constipation. I have prescribed it in my practice for the past ten years and would not practice medicine without it. I have not given La-cu-pia the trial I have the other two, but as far as I have used it, it has been entirely satisfactory. I will do all in my power to advance your most valuable medicines. I wish you great success."

C. C. Walker, M. D., Dickens City, Texas, writes: "I wish people could have seen my wife two years ago and then see her now. She weighed then only 108 pounds, now she weighs 145. All your medicines do just what you claim them to do. I have tried Men-a-lin in a severe case of jaundice and it worked like a charm. I always keep a supply of your medicines on hand. I will answer all inquiries in regard to your most excellent medicines."

A very instructive and beautifully illustrated book on the diseases peculiar to women, entitled "Health and Beauty," will be sent free to women only. This book was written by Dr. Hartman, who has given these subjects long and careful attention. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

The Singapore correspondent of The Times says:

"Letters received here from Manila, dated May 26, say that the prolonged conferences between the German consul and Captain General Augusti were exciting attention in Manila and had led to the belief that Germany had designs on the Sulu archipelago."

BRAVE MARINES.

Stood Off an Attack of About 3,000 Spanish.

FIFTEEN DEAD DONS FOUND.

Small Force of Americans Exhausted With Repelling the Attacks.

TWO MARINES REPORTED KILLED.

The Injured Said to Number Four—Another Report Differs From This as to the Killed and Wounded—Were It Not for the Protecting Guns of the Fleet the Little Band Would Likely Be Overcome by Superior Numbers—Gallant and Successful Attack on a Stone Fort by a Scouting Party Under Lieutenant Neville—The Dead Spaniards Found After This Assault.

CAMP OF THE UNITED STATES MARINES, OUTER HARBOR OF GUANTANAMO, Monday, June 13, by the dispatch boat Wanda, via Kingston, Jamaica, June 15.—After two nights of hard fighting the American flag still floats on Cuban soil over the encampment of the marine battalion and our boys say they will keep it there until the belated troops arrive if it takes till winter.

Thus far the marines have had the best of the fighting, but the situation is grave and they are exhausted with repelling almost incessant attacks. They have little chance to rest or sleep and the time of the arrival of the relieving troops is uncertain. Were it not for the protecting guns of the fleet the small little band would be annihilated by the Spanish troops in overpowering numbers from Santiago de Cuba. As it is they probably can hold their position, but they cannot move forward until reinforced by troops.

The tents have been struck and rolled into breastworks, supplemented by trenches around the crest of the hill. The spot is lamentably exposed, on ground, while scouting on all sides is heavy brush. The least movement in the camp is the signal for instant target practice upon the part of the Spanish sharpshooters, whose rifles carry much further than ours, though their owners rarely hit anything they aim at.

After the first attack on Saturday night, Colonel Huntington decided that another attempt would be made on Sunday night and he caused entrenchments to be thrown up on all sides of the camp and in the trenches the main part of the battalion last night waited for the attack that the colonel was certain would come. It arrived within a short time after dark and from that time until after daybreak the firing was incessant and at times very heavy.

On the American side two men were killed and four injured. The dead are: Sergeant Major Henry Goode of the marines, shot through the right breast.

Private Tauman, wounded and fell off the cliff and was instantly killed.

The injured are:

Private Wallace, fell off the cliff and sustained a fracture of the leg.

Private Martin, shot through the left leg.

Private Roxbury, shot through the arm.

The above are all privates belonging to Company D.

Private Burke, shot through the arm. The first attack of the Spaniards was made about 8 o'clock, and the last shot was fired by them at about 3 o'clock in the morning.

During the night the Spaniards attacked the camp of the marines on the shore, and the Marblehead, believing the Americans had been driven out, threw several shells into the place. The attack, however, was repulsed by the small detachment of marines in camp without trouble. The shells of the Marblehead struck among the marines.

The fight was the first of the war in which the Cubans co-operated with the American forces and their co-operation was not a glittering success. At one time during the afternoon whenever the marines were firing on a small detachment of Spaniards that made their appearance a short distance from the camp, the Cubans began firing without orders and sent a volley right among the Americans. There were several very narrow escapes, but no one was injured.

Lieutenant Neville of Company D was sent out on scout duty and, as on the day previous, he attacked a small stone fort. A hot fight followed and the Spaniards were driven off with loss. It was during this fight that Wallace and Tauman fell over the cliff.

Fifteen dead Spaniards, including one lieutenant, were found in the fort. During the attack several shots struck the ships in the harbor, one penetrating the pilot house of the dispatch boat Dandy. No one was injured on board of her.

The Dolphin this morning located the Spanish water station on the ocean side of the harbor entrance, which supplied the water for the attacking force. The well was situated in a bilboise without having a strong garrison. It was shelled at 2,000 yards. Excellent practice was made, the station was wrecked and cannister followed the retreating Spaniards up the steep incline. The arrival of the fleet to complete the bombardment of the town and its defenses is expected this afternoon.

The discovery of the bodies of 15 Spaniards, including a lieutenant, shows how deadly was the American defense. The Spanish sent 8,000 men by train from the city of Guantanamo to attack them, but, pressed by the American fire, the Spaniards were unable to reach the earthworks. The Marblehead shelled the woods, but could not locate the Spanish line with accuracy. She has since been reinforced by the Dolphin.

There is some conflict as to the precise nature of the casualties on the American side.

One report says that Sergeant Major Henry Goode and Private Tauman were killed by a fall from the cliff, and that four privates were wounded. Another report gives the killed as two marines and the injured as Sergeant Major Goode and Private Tauman.

ARMOUR IN CHARGE.

Took Hold of Leiter's Cash Wheat in Northwest—Creditors May Lose Nothing—Attachments Issued.

CHICAGO, June 15.—P. D. Armour took charge of Joseph Leiter's cash wheat in the northwest, amounting to 4,000,000 or 5,000,000 bushels yesterday. Semi-authoritative information is also obtained that Armour will take up all of Leiter's wheat.

It is generally admitted the charge to Armour clears the atmosphere to a considerable extent and if trustees are necessary to liquidate the rest of Leiter's cash wheat in this city, New York, and in European stores, it will not require much time to dispose of the remaining 3,000,000 bushels or more.

There will apparently be little difficulty in winding up the deal inasmuch as it is authoritatively stated that bins have been reserved for all cash wheat that Leiter has.

There is a fair prospect that Leiter's creditors will lose nothing and that the wheat will bring in sufficient with recovering markets to pay all claims.

An attachment for $700,000 procured in New York by Lohrke, the grain exporter, against Joseph Leiter was served yesterday, but was released by Lohrke when the arrangement with Armour & Co. was completed.

AGAINST ANNEXATION.

This Declared to Be the Sentiment of a Democratic House Caucus.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—At a caucus of the Democrats of the house resolutions were adopted declaring the sense of the Democrats of the house to be opposed to Hawaiian annexation as a consummation that would prove injurious to the interests of the United States and contrary to the long-established and generally recognized policy of the government. The action was taken after an hour had been consumed in discussing the advisability of adopting any resolutions upon the proposition of annexation.

The resolutions were adopted finally, 61 to 17.

As to the effect of caucus action the Democratic advocates of annexation expressed the opinion that some votes would be lost. Prior to the caucus it was claimed that 23 would vote for annexation, but now it is believed that 14 will more nearly represent the Democratic vote in support of the resolutions.

A VOTE THIS AFTERNOON.

The Hawaiian Annexation Matter to Be Acted Upon in the House.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Eight hours comprising afternoon and evening sessions of the house yesterday were devoted to debate of the Newlands resolutions for the annexation of Hawaii. Twenty delivered, most of them being brief. A vote will be taken at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The resolutions, according to estimates yesterday, will receive, with the exception of not more than 13, all Republican votes, and will enlist support of from 15 to 20 Democrats and members of other parties.

The dead woman's husband has been already convicted, Clemmer being on trial as an accomplice.

Holy Shroud Photographed.

ROME, June 15.—The organ of the Vatican, The Osservatore Romano, publishes from Turin an account of the photographing of the holy shroud, recently exposed.
